Conversations With Katter

Conversations With Katter is a rivetting insight into the often controversial views of Bob Katter, the colourful MP for Kennedy, Queensland. Bob explains why he is passionate about Australia and its people and willingly shares his views on where the country is heading. He explores the events that shaped his beliefs and the relationships that taught him the most, revealing his personal feeling about family, friends and enemies. His views on the big banks, immigration, the rising price of energy, same-sex marriage and One Nation are typically controversial. If you think you know everything about the man in the hat, think again.
